Goldfarb School of Nursing (GSON) at Barnes-Jewish College
Student Experience and Development Policies/Procedures

TITLE: Bringing Children to Campus Policy – GSON Students

SUBMITTED/REVIEWED BY: Edward Gricius, MS

Associate Dean for Student Experience and Development

LAST REVIEWED/REVISION DATE: February 22, 2023

Policy Statement

This policy applies to any Goldfarb School of Nursing ("Goldfarb") Student who brings their Child or Children to Campus. This policy is intended to ensure a productive and safe environment where Goldfarb Students can meet their educational obligations.

I. Definitions

   a. Campus – all Goldfarb facilities and educational sites

   b. Parent or Guardian – any adult who is responsible for a Child while on Campus regardless of the Student's relationship to the Child

   c. Student – any individual enrolled in classes at Goldfarb

II. Student Guidelines

   a. Children of Students are not to be brought to school on a regular basis in lieu of childcare.
   b. On rare occasions, Students may bring their Children to school for brief periods of time for school-related business. Permission must be obtained in advance from the faculty member if bringing their Child to a meeting with faculty or attending class with a Child.
   c. Parents or Guardians are solely responsible for providing continuous, direct supervision of their Children on Campus.
   d. Children must not be left unattended or with Faculty, Staff, or other Students.
   e. Students are not permitted to ask Faculty and Staff to supervise their Children.
   f. Children of Students are not permitted to use Goldfarb resources, including but not limited to computers, printing, and supplies, while on Campus.

III. Revocation of Privilege

   Allowing Students to bring their Children to Campus is a privilege with limitations extended by Goldfarb to assist in meeting family needs and responsibilities and may be revoked if the Child's presence becomes disruptive to the academic environment.